

JOYCE JONES | MONTEVALLO MAYORAL CANDIDATE

MY VISION FOR THE CITY OF MONTEVALLO

I want to be a mayor who strives to make our city government all about the CITIZENS of Montevallo. My goal is to unify our city in order to continue on a path toward social equity and economic growth.

I believe that our city government should focus on our SECURITY, our COMMUNITIES, and our OPPORTUNITIES.

As Mayor of Montevallo, I would be deliberate and thoughtful about the business of the city while being passionate about and responsive to the people of our city.

I believe we can be ONE MONTEVALLO.

ABOUT JOYCE

I am a 45-year-old Montevallo native and dedicated civic and community servant. After graduating from Montevallo High School, I attended the University of West Alabama and the University of Montevallo. My husband, Minister Mike Jones, is also a Montevallo native. We have been married for 20 years and together we have raised four beautiful children in our hometown. Because I have lived in four out of five of the city's districts, I know our town and its wonderful people well!
